Activities Developed on Behalf of Kaduna State, Nigeria

GoodWorks International (GWI) organized a formal visit to Washington by Governor Ahmed Makarfi, of Kaduna State, from August 8-10, 2005. The Governor was accompanied by six officials of his State Administration.

The Governor's appointments included calls on the President of the African Development Foundation, the Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for African Affairs, the Senior Director for Africa at the National Security Council, and the Assistant U.S. Trade Representative for Africa. The Governor led a roundtable discussion for members of government, NGOs, and the private sector at the Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS), was hosted by the Council on Foreign Relations at a private luncheon, and made calls at the International Republican Institute, the National Democratic Institute, and the Africa Society. The Governor was interviewed by the Hausa Language Service at the Voice of America (VOA) and paid a courtesy call on the Head of VOA.

GWI hosted a luncheon for the Governor and his delegation. Guests included working-level representatives of the Department of Agriculture, the International Finance Corporation, and the World Bank. A smaller luncheon was held for the Governor with a consulting firm which also represents the Government of Nigeria in Washington.

On a subsequent visit to Washington November 7-9, Governor Makarfi attended the Annual Awards Luncheon of the Africa Society where he met Senator Richard Lugar (R-IN), Senator Barrack Obama (D-IL), and Congressman Charles Rangel (D-NY). He also called on Congressman Donald Payne (D-NJ), Congresswoman Sheila Jackson-Lee (D-TX), and Congressman Bennie Thompson (D-MS). The Governor made a return visit to the Africa Development Foundation, and gave another television interview for the VOA.
